FESTIVAL

FEBRUARY 3-13

Presented by

Opening Night Film
The Little Prince

Wednesday February 3, 8:00 PM Arlington Theatre
Co-Sponsored by Bella Vista Designs
US PREMIERE

Directed by Mark Osborne and featuring the voices of Jeff Bridges, Rachel McAdams, Paul Rudd, Ricky Gervais, James Franco, Mackenzie Foy, and Benicio Del Toro, THE LITTLE PRINCE is based on the classic tale of the same name by Antoine de Saint-Exupéry.

A little girl (Mackenzie Foy) lives in a very grown-up world with her mother (Rachel McAdams), who tries to make sure she is prepared for it. Her neighbor, The Aviator (Jeff Bridges), introduces the girl to an extraordinary world where anything is possible.

Maltin Modern Master Award
Johnny Depp

Thursday February 4, 8:00 PM Arlington Theatre
Presented by UGG®

Johnny Depp is a true embodiment of a modern master. He has had a long and storied career that has shown his commitment to taking on compelling and dynamic roles. But in the gripping film BLACK MASS under the skillful direction of Scott Cooper, Johnny Depp delivers his defining performance to date.

The Modern Master Award is the highest honor presented by SBIFF. Established in 1995, it was created to pay tribute to an individual who has enriched our culture through his or her multi-faceted accomplishments in the motion picture industry.

American Riviera Award
Michael Keaton, Mark Ruffalo & Rachel McAdams

Friday February 5, 8:00 PM Arlington Theatre
Presented by Engel & Völkers

Michael, Mark and Rachel are three of the finest actors in the business. They are artists in the truest sense of the word who continue to surprise and inspire audiences with their talent. Their recent turn in SPOTLIGHT demonstrates their skills both harmoniously as an ensemble and individually, and it is an honor to celebrate their work with the American Riviera Award.

The American Riviera Award was created in recognition of actors who have forged their own path – taking artistic risks and making a significant and unique contribution to film.

Virtuosos Award

Saturday February 6, 8:00 PM Arlington Theatre
Sponsored by Travel + Leisure

Honoring Elizabeth Banks (LOVE & MERCY)
Paul Dano (YOUTH, LOVE & MERCY)
Joel Edgerton (BLACK MASS)
O'Shea Jackson Jr. (STRAIGHT OUTTA COMPTON)
Géza Röhrig (SON OF SAUL)
Jacob Tremblay (ROOM)
and Alicia Vikander (THE DANISH GIRL, EX MACHINA)

The Virtuosos Award was created to recognize a select group of actors who have distinguished themselves through performances in film this past year.

Centerpiece Film
Knight of Cups

Sunday February 7, 8:00 PM Arlington Theatre
US PREMIERE

Directed by Terrence Malick and featuring Christian Bale, Natalie Portman, Cate Blanchett, Freida Pinto, Isabel Lucas, Imogen Poots, Wes Bentley, Brian Dennehy and Teresa Palmer, KNIGHT OF CUPS follows writer Rick (Bale) on an odyssey through the playgrounds of Los Angeles and Las Vegas as he undertakes a search for love and self. Even as he moves through a desire-laden landscape of mansions, resorts, beaches and clubs, Rick grapples over complicated relationships with his brother (Bentley) and father (Dennehy). His quest to break the spell of his disenchantment takes him on a series of adventures with six alluring women.

Outstanding Performers of the Year Award
Brie Larson & Saoirse Ronan

Monday February 8, 8:00 PM Arlington Theatre

This was an incredible year for emerging talent to take center stage and showcase their abilities. We've long been following the careers of Brie and Saoirse and their recent roles as empowered young women who transcend time, place and circumstance. We are so proud to be jointly celebrating these two great actresses in such strong performances.

This is the first time the award will be given to two honorees. Both Brie and Saoirse had previously been awarded the festival's Virtuoso Award, in 2014 and 2010 respectively. The duo will be celebrated for their remarkable performances in ROOM and BROOKLYN.

Montecito Award Sylvester Stallone

Tuesday February 9, 8:00 PM Arlington Theatre
Presented by Hennessy Paradis Imperial

Sylvester Stallone's performance in CREED has reminded us of what a true talent he is and it is a joy to admire his successes. It is our privilege to present him with the Montecito Award and to continue to honor his legacy.

The Montecito Award was created in recognition of a performer who has given a series of classic and standout performances throughout his or her career and whose style has made a major contribution to film.

Variety Artisans Award

Wednesday February 10, 8:00 PM Lobero Theatre
Sponsored by Variety

The Tribute evening celebrates those essential to the filmmaking process and who have exhibited the most exciting and innovative work of the year in their respective fields.

A list of honorees is available at sbiff.org.

Outstanding Directors of the Year Award

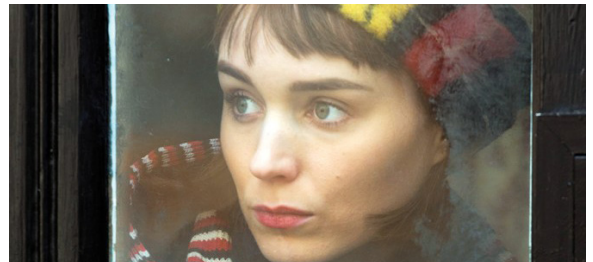

Thursday February 11, 8:00 PM Arlington Theatre
Sponsored by The Hollywood Reporter

Honoring Alejandro G. Iñárritu (THE REVENANT), George Miller (MAD MAX: FURY ROAD), Lenny Abrahamson (ROOM), Adam McKay (THE BIG SHORT), and Tom McCarthy (SPOTLIGHT)

Filmmaking is a collaborative effort, spearheaded by the director who guides the cast and crew in creating a cohesive visual narrative. Each of these talented individuals will be awarded for his exceptional vision in bringing together every element of filmmaking, from acting and story to camerawork and sound, creating an unforgettable experience.

Cinema Vanguard Award Rooney Mara

Friday February 12, 8:00 PM Arlington Theatre

From her scene-stealing turn in THE GIRL WITH THE DRAGON TATTOO to her outstanding performance in this year's CAROL, Rooney has repeatedly showcased her talents as one of the most gifted actors of her generation. We truly admire the enigmatic and complex nature of her performances. She's an adept, beguiling actor, and we are proud to present her with this year's Cinema Vanguard Award.

The Cinema Vanguard Award was established to recognize actors who have had a strong influence on American Cinema.

Closing Night Film Marguerite

Saturday February 13, 8:00 PM Arlington Theatre

With support from uniFrance Films and the Consulate General of France in Los Angeles

Directed by Xavier Giannoli, this funny and emotional drama takes place in Paris during the 1920s. Marguerite Dumont (Catherine Frot) loves to sing for her friends, although she's not a talented singer. Both her friends and her husband have kept her fantasy alive. When a provocative journalist decides to write a rave article on her latest performance, Marguerite starts to believe even further in her talent. The problem begins when she decides to perform in front of a real audience.

PRODUCERS PANEL

Saturday February 6, 10:00 AM Lobero Theatre

"Movers and Shakers" brings together some of today's most established producers to share their insights in sparkling conversation. The Producers Panel allows some of the industry's leading professionals to discuss their current projects and what they hope to see for the future of filmmaking. This panel can provide insight into the business as well as the creative sides of producers.

WRITERS PANEL

Saturday February 6, 1:00 PM Lobero Theatre

"It Starts with the Script" brings together some of today's most talented and innovative writing professionals as they discuss the process for giving life to film. In this panel, top writers converse about what it takes to write a script and about their journeys to the big screen. Hear some of the most gifted writers in Hollywood talk about the challenges in their craft.

WOMEN'S PANEL

Saturday February 13, 11:00 AM Lobero Theatre

Sponsored by Brooks Institute

The "Creative Forces: Women in the Biz" panel debuted in 2005 and celebrates influential women in film. Women from all stages of film production, including editing, directing, costuming, casting, production design, and producing come together to discuss the unique challenges they have faced and successes they have had in the film industry.

EDUCATIONAL PROGRAMS

MIKE'S FIELD TRIP TO THE MOVIES

Sponsored by Santa Barbara Foundation, Union Bank, Wells Fargo, Bentson Foundation, Macy's, and The Volentine Family Foundation

Mike's Field Trip to the Movies serves 4,000+ fifth- and sixth-grade students in Santa Barbara County. Following a screening of INSIDE OUT, director Pete Docter will lead the students in an immersive Q&A about the art of filmmaking. SBIFF provides free bus transportation to all participating Title I schools.

10-10-10 STUDENT COMPETITIONS

Saturday February 13 - 2:00 PM Arlington Theatre

Sponsored by Montecito Bank & Trust, Final Draft, and Mary Beth Riordan

Joining student screenwriters and filmmakers with mentoring industry professionals, the 10-10-10 Student Screenwriting and Filmmaking Competitions foster a new generation of talent. Participants in these two competitions join to produce a total of ten films that are publicly screened for FREE on the last day of the festival.

FILM STUDIES PROGRAM

Sponsored by Lynda Weinman and Bruce Heavin

The student film studies program brings undergraduate students from across the country for a three-day symposium with a focus on film appreciation, criticism, and analysis. Students will have the opportunity to learn from notable industry professionals. They will get a behind-the-scenes look at the Santa Barbara International Film Festival through a unique mix of guided and self-guided opportunities, allowing students to customize the experience and benefit from all the Festival has to offer. Students will have access to screenings, panels, Q&A sessions, celebrity tribute events, and private sessions with filmmakers and media professionals in a classroom setting. Thanks to the generosity of Lynda Weinman and Bruce Heavin, the number of students allowed has doubled, and the program will be completely FREE including travel and lodging.
